Summary calculations of these fees and expenses are attached hereto as Exhibit 2 and Exhibit 4, respectively.

8. The fees and expenses requested are reasonable and all amounts requested were for actual and necessary services rendered on behalf of the Trustee.

16. JM reserves the right to request additional compensation for the Application Period to the extent that it is later determined that time or disbursement charges for services rendered or disbursements incurred during such time period have not yet been submitted.

18. No agreement or understanding exists between JM and any other entity for sharing of any compensation or reimbursement in this case.

19. JM has provided the information required by the U.S. Trustee's Guidelines and the Interim Compensation Order.

20. JM has served as bankruptcy co-counsel to the Trustee and, in that capacity, has rendered legal services for the benefit of the Trustee and the Debtor's estate.

STANDARDS RELEVANT TO AWARDING REASONABLE COMPENSATION

21. Section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code authorizes the Court to award JM reasonable compensation for its actual and necessary services rendered and reimbursement of its actual and necessary expenses incurred in the rendering of services as bankruptcy counsel to the Trustee. Section 330 provides:

- (a)(1) After notice to the parties in interest and to the United States Trustee and a hearing, and subject to sections 326, 328, and 329, the court may award to a trustee, a consumer privacy ombudsman appointed under section 332, an examiner, an ombudsman appointed under section 333, or a professional person employed under section 327 or 1103:
 - (A) reasonable compensation for actual, necessary services rendered by the trustee, examiner, ombudsman, professional person or attorney and by any paraprofessional person employed by any such person; and
 - (B) reimbursement for actual, necessary expenses.

11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(1).

22. This Application substantiates the total amount that JM seeks for fees and expenses in accordance with each element of the customary standards applied to fee applications. These standards are set forth in (i) Bankruptcy Rule 2016 and (ii) In re First Colonial Corp. of America, 544 F.2d 1291 (5th Cir. 1977), cert. denied, 431 U.S. 904 (1977).

23. In First Colonial, the Fifth Circuit adopted the following twelve factors to apply to the determination of awards of attorneys' fees in bankruptcy cases: (i) time and labor required; (ii) the novelty and difficulty of the questions; (iii) the skill requisite to perform the legal service properly; (iv) the preclusion of other employment by the professional due to acceptance of the case; (v) the customary fee; (vi) whether the fee is contingent or fixed; (vii) time limitations imposed by the client or the circumstances; (viii) the amount involved and the results obtained; (ix) the experience, reputation and ability of the attorneys; (x) the "undesirability" of the case; (xi) the nature and length of the professional relationship with the client; and (xii) awards in similar cases. First Colonial, 544 F.2d at 1298-99. These factors were taken from Johnson v. Georgia Highway Express, Inc., 488 F.2d 714, 717-19 (5th Cir. 1974), a non-bankruptcy case, and are commonly referred to as the "Johnson factors." The original Johnson factors, as embraced by First Colonial, remain applicable to the determination of reasonableness of fees awarded under the Bankruptcy Code. See 15 King, Collier on Bankruptcy, ¶ 330.04[3] at 330-35 to 330-41. A majority of the Johnson factors are now codified under Bankruptcy Code Section 330(a). Id.

24. The Fifth Circuit has rejected the "hindsight" or "material benefit" standard that was originally set forth in In re Pro-Snax Distributors, Inc., 157 F.3d 414 (5th Cir. 1998). In its place, the Fifth Circuit enunciated a new, prospective standard based on whether the services of counsel were reasonably likely to benefit the estate at the time such services were rendered. See In re Woerner, 783 F.3d 266, 276 (5th Cir. 2015). All services rendered by JM satisfy the Woerner standard because they were reasonably likely to benefit the estate at the time rendered.

NATURE AND EXTENT OF SERVICES PROVIDED BY JM

25. JM classified all services performed for which compensation is sought in six (6) categories. JM attempted to divide its services rendered to the Trustee in this bankruptcy case into appropriate categories. However, because certain services may relate to more than a single category, services pertaining to one category may be included in another category. ADDITIONAL STANDARDS FOR AWARDING OF ATTORNEYS’ FEES

A. NOVELTY AND DIFFICULTY OF LEGAL PROBLEMS INVOLVED

38. The first Johnson factor examines the degree of novelty and difficulty of the issues encountered by JM. With respect to the matters described herein, numerous difficult and complex legal problems have been addressed and considered by JM, all of which have required knowledge of the application of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules and court decisions interpreting the same.

B. CUSTOMARY FEE

39. The next relevant factor to be considered is the reasonable hourly rate by which the reasonable number of hours expended by JM are to be multiplied. Subsumed in this analysis are the following guidelines, as noted in Johnson: the customary fee charged by the applicant, awards in similar cases, the level of skill necessary, the amount involved, the results obtained, the reputation of the professional and the undesirability of the case.

40. JM’s hourly billing rates are computed at the rates JM regularly charges its hourly clients.

41. The hourly rates charged by JM are commensurate or lower than the customary fees charged by professionals of similar experience, reputation and abilities in this community, as well as those rates charged regionally and nationally. Additionally, the hourly rates charged by JM are consistent with the amount involved in these cases, the nature of the disputes and issues addressed in these cases, the results obtained by JM, and the level of skill necessary to perform the work. Accordingly, the hourly billing rates charged by JM are reasonable.

C. SKILL REQUIRED FOR PERFORMANCE OF LEGAL SERVICES

42. The number of difficult issues and matters addressed in these cases has required a high degree of skill and expertise. JM's attorneys, with varying levels of experience and seniority, have been used effectively and efficiently to perform the tasks assigned to them and have provided valuable and effective assistance to the Trustee. A thorough understanding of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules together with other state and federal law was blended with business expertise to assist the Trustee. In addition, multiple issues in these bankruptcy cases, including, but not limited to, ongoing litigation related to the TX and CT families, appellate claims and complex issues regarding jurisdiction, remand, and removal, the FSS Case and the Jones Case, the potential sale of equity, and examination of book royalties, have required additional expertise from JM's attorneys. The compensation requested by JM is consistent with the compensation awarded in other cases of similar size and complexity.

D. RESULTS OBTAINED

43. JM's services in this case have assisted the Trustee in his efforts to maximize the value of the estate and efficiently administer this case. This case has been handled in a professional and cost-effective manner under the circumstances. The requested compensation is reasonable in view of the time expended, the parties involved, and the results obtained in this case.

E. EXPERIENCE, REPUTATION, AND ABILITY OF JM

44. JM's attorneys, over many years, have appeared throughout the United States providing legal representation to trustees, debtors, secured creditors, unsecured creditors, and creditors' committees in proceedings under the Bankruptcy Code. Further, partners of JM, including those who have provided legal services in the instant cases, have for many years actively participated in leadership positions in various professional organizations and bar associations, and have written for local and national publications and spoken at local, state and national institutes for continuing legal education in the area of bankruptcy, creditors rights, restructuring, and fiduciary litigation. JM's attorneys are experienced in all aspects of bankruptcy matters, possess a high level of expertise, and have an excellent reputation in the business and legal communities. Furthermore, JM has particular experience in the areas of insolvency, workouts and corporate reorganization, and the representation of trustees in bankruptcy proceedings.

F. CONTINGENT NATURE OF FEES AND UNDESIRABILITY OF CASE

45. No contingent fees are requested in these cases.

G. TIME LIMITATIONS IMPOSED BY THE CASE

46. The time demands of this representation have, at times, been significant for JM but JM has worked quickly, diligently, and efficiently to address the serious challenges faced by the Debtor's estate within the Application Period.

47. These fees and costs were necessary for the proper and successful administration of the bankruptcy cases. JM made every effort to keep all fees and costs to a minimum.

48. At all times covered by this Fee Application, JM diligently fulfilled its duty as bankruptcy counsel for the Trustee. All services rendered by JM benefited the estates at the time that such services were rendered. Services performed by JM throughout these cases were done in a professional, skilled, and expeditious manner, requiring substantially less time than would have been required by counsel with less experience. Every action of JM was taken to reduce the legal hours expended and matters not demanding the services of senior attorneys were assigned to junior associates, or paralegals.

49. No agreement exists between JM and any other person, firm or entity for division or sharing of compensation in these cases.

50. The above narrative portion of this Application is primarily intended to serve as a summary recapitulation of the major areas of JM's activities and responsibilities. The exhibits provide complete summaries of the acts taken by JM on behalf of the Trustee during these cases.

WHEREFORE, JM requests that the Court enter an order (i) allowing JM's compensation for professional and paraprofessional services to the Trustee rendered during the Application Period in the amount of $145,669.50 and reimbursement of actual and necessary expenses incurred by JM in the amount of $1,145.12; and (ii) award and order to be paid to JM the balance of any such fees and costs paid from funds available in the Debtor's estate.
